

ICI Commends SEC on Attention to Role of Credit Ratings

ICI Commends SEC on Attention to Role of Credit Ratings

Sees Review of SEC Rules as Appropriate

Washington, DC, June 25, 2008 - Following the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's open meeting today, Investment Company Institute President and CEO Paul Schott Stevens issued the following statement:

"The mutual fund industry commends the Commission for reviewing the role of credit ratings by nationally recognized statistical rating organizations (NRSROs) in its rules and forms. This goes hand-in-hand with the agency's other reform efforts to ensure an open and effective rating system. We look forward to commenting on the Commission's forthcoming proposing release."